

International Open ICT Summit : Monday October 20th

7:00a – 9:00a	Registration & Continental Breakfast for Open ICT Summit
9:00a - 9:20 p	Keynote A Global Perspective on the Interest and Impact of Open Source Software in National & Regional Governments
9:20 – 10:30p	International Distributed Panel Global Dialogue on the Impact of Open Source Software in Transforming Government
10:30a - 10:45a	Break
10:45a – 12:00p	International Distributed Panel Continues
12:00p - 12:30p	Plated Lunch is Served
12:30p - 1:00p	International Lunch Keynote Open in Oregon
1:00p - 1:45p	Open Forum Europe
1:45p - 2:15p	Ruby City MATSUE Project: Regional Industrial Promotion through Open Source and Industry-University-Government Cooperation
2:15p - 2:30p	Break
2:30p - 3:15p	The Latin American Free Software Movement
3:15p – 4:00p	OSS Open Lab, the New Service for OSS Promotion in Japan
4:00p - 6:00p	International Summit Reception at the Crowne Plaza

GOSCON 2008 Day 1: Tuesday October 21th

	Management Track	Implementation Track	Open Public Health IT Track
7:45a – 8:30a	Registration & Continental Breakfast
8:30a – 9:45a	Keynote YouGov II: Why MTV isn't, why radio is a pandora's box and why government service delivery will never be the same
9:45a - 10:30a	Open Source in Government Contracting	Xpert – Open Source Financial Management, HR & Revenue Management Software for K12 and Local Government	Executive Panel: Macro Trends Set the Stage for Open Source in Public Health
10:30a – 11:00a	Break demonstration hall sponsored by OpenSourcery
11:00a -12:00p	Open Source Development in the Department of Corrections (joint presentation)		Applying Open Source Methodologies to Build Public Health Software Collaboratively
12:00 – 12:30p	Lunch served
12:30 - 1:15p	Keynote Participation in a World of Choice: Open Source and Microsoft
1:15p – 2:15p	Creating Successful Public Private Partnerships in Education Collaboration	Case Study: Open Source in the Data Center	Health Atlas Ireland: Integrating data sets, GIS, statistics for health service planning, epidemiology, and incident management.
2:15p-3:00p	Break
3:00p – 4:00p	A Web-GIS Building Permit Tracker with Open Technology Using a Participatory Approach	Cracking the Code on Government Procurement Requirements; Open Source BI Fuels Jet Propulsion	Transitioning from Proprietary to Open Source Software: Issues and Lessons Learned through OpenELIS
4:00p - 6:00p	Conference Reception at the Crowne Plaza Hotel sponsored by IBM

GOSCON 2008 Day 2 : Wednesday October 22

	Management Track	Implementation Track	Open Public Health IT Track
7:45a – 8:30a	Registration & Continental Breakfast
8:30a – 9:30a	Keynote Open Tools, Web 2.0 and Innovation for Government
9:30a - 9:45a	Break
9:45a - 10:30a	Taking Diplomacy to the Web: Open Source in the Department of State International Information Programs	Plinkit: Using Open Source Software for Public Library Websites in Oregon and Beyond	Transforming Healthcare through Open Source
10:30a – 11:00a	Break demonstration hall
11:00a -12:00p	Panel: Government Open Collaboratives
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch served Community Networking Forum
1:00p – 2:00p	Open eGov	Defining the Real Value of Open Source within Government IT Systems	Lightning Round Sessions (General Interest)
2:00p-3:00p	Break Demo Hall
3:00p – 4:00p	Closing Keynote Building a Culture of Innovation and Productivity through Collaboration
4:00p	Conference Program Close

GOSCON 2008 Open Source Tour de Lab: Thursday, Oct 23

8:30a	Coffe & Muffins for the Tour Group in the Lobby
9:00a	Depart Crowne Plaza on Bus
10:40a	Arrive on OSU Campus
11:00a	Tour of Open Source Lab Staff & Student Lightning Round of Projects
12:30p	Box Lunches & Networking
1:30p	Depart OSU on Bus
2:30p	Oregon Wine & Cheese Tasting at the Willamette Valley Vineyards
5:00p	Arrive back at Holiday Inn Crowne Plaza